(intro)

```
C                   G
green acres is the place TO BE G                     C
fa-arm livin' is the life for me
G                       F
land stretchin' out so far and wide
C                    G                   C    (play the lick once)
keep manhattan just gimme that country-side

C                      G
new york is where i'd rather stay
G              C
i get allergic smelling hay
G              F
i just adore a penthouse view
C                        G                C
dah-lin' i love you but gimme park a-ve-nue

    C              G
the chores!    the stores!
      C             G
fresh air!    times square!
C                   F
you are my wife... goodbye city life!
      C     G7     C      (intro)
green acres we are there
