

DESPERATE MAN

by AJ Leonard

When can I see you
When can we talk
Where can I meet you and go for a walk
If all goes according to how I want this plan
I'll no longer be a desperate man

If you'll see me in the morning
I'll bring you toast in bed
You can read the morning paper while I rub your head
I'll shine your shoes and press your clothes I'll do all I can
As long as I'm no longer a desperate man

I'll cut my hair I'll get a job
I'll find a way to save
No more straying off the rails I promise to behave
I want to have your babies I'll even push the pram
As long as I'm no longer a desperate man

This spell I've fought it's got me caught
Hung up and left out to dry
Those eyes of yours are just one cause
Of why I want to try

The way is deep when love runs true
The fire never dies
If it's someone else you want I'll wear a disguise
I'll go to any length I'm your number one fan
No longer can I be a desperate man
