

MATTHEW ED STILLMAN AND THE MILES BURNING BAND

Crafting an original sound in the Americana Roots genre is no simple task, but it's the ongoing passion for Matthew Ed Stillman and The Miles Burning Band. From Tennessee to Chicago; on up to Wisconsin; and all over the small town honky-tonks & pubs of rural Illinois, they will continue burning up the miles to make fans and pay their dues.

Songs from Matthew Ed Stillman's recent debut EP (produced by Miles Burning Band lead guitarist Michael Pentz) have been included in Triple Strand Productions (<http://www.tspcountryradio.com>) Independent radio program "Country Legends in the Making" that reaches 400 am/fm stations around the world.

Whether playing a tight grooving set of original material on a package bill or taking on a 3 hour plus gig with classic and "deep-cut" covers interspersed, Matthew Ed Stillman & The Miles Burning Band would value the opportunity to bring their music to your venue or production.
