

Katie Rose

SINGER, CONDUCTOR, COMPOSER & WRITER
WWW.THEROSEWINDOW.ORG

Described by The Guardian as a 'fine singer' and by fROOTS Magazine as 'an eye (and ear) opener'
Katie Rose loves singing and helping people sing.

ARTIST

Creating magical experiences of song to uplift, soothe and inspire

Katie's fourth album Flame is due to be released in Summer 2021, following three previous albums and releases including Croydon Composers (Drum the Bass 2017-18), Ankle - The False Beards, Weirdlore (Folk Police 2012) and Echoes From the Mountain (Rif Mountain, 2010) and a piece to accompany the award-winning film about the Dalai Lama, Road to Peace (2012). She has performed with artists including Gill Manly, Tom Morley (Scritti Politti) Sarah Fisher (Eurythmics) and Barefoot Doctor.

'Stunning vocal aerobatics'
- FATEA Magazine

CHOIRS

Creating and contributing to our communities through the magic of singing together in harmony

Katie has co-directed annual fundraiser Sing for Water London since 2017, directed Festival of Peace Croydon (2018) featuring London Mozart Players and events for NHS England, St Christopher's Hospice, & Forest Schools. She has led sessions for twenty London choirs, including five hospitals and currently directs Lung Songs at St Georges Hospital, HeartSong, Croydon Carers Choir, Welcome Choir, ManSong, The Hive Choir & Caterham Community Choir.

"She's great, sings like a high bird and can bring hundreds of people together in one vision through inspiration, focus and song."
- Jana Rowland, Composer

COACHING

Helping creatives unlock the power, joy and magic of their voices

With 20 years experience of working with individuals including music, film, theatre & TV professionals, Katie brings an innovative and holistic approach to voice work.

'I sang like I never sang in my life'
- Juliette Jean Claude

WRITING

Committed to sharing positive news about the power of the arts

Katie has written and broadcast for fROOTS Magazine, Turning Point Magazine, The Croydon Citizen, Croydon Radio and her own Vocal Revolution Zoomcast/Podcast (2020). Her poems published in Corvids & Others (2020) and Poetic Ramblings Through Croydonia. (2016) and she has performed alongside poets including Raficq Abdulla MBE.

TRAINING

BA Hons English Literature & Theatre Studies Leeds University, PTLLS City & Guilds Level 3 in Community Music Leadership (2014) and various holistic therapies. Katie is a fully insured member of the Natural Voice Network. References available on request.

CONTACT

Telephone: 07870 679161
Email: info@therosewindow.org