Endless thanks to my wife and children! Certainly, without their support, none of this would have come to fruition. Thankful for God's grace and many blessings. Many thanks to friends and family for their love and support. A special thanks to everyone who worked so hard on this project giving it life: the band, Matthew Perlmutter and Christian Solazzo. Also, thanks to YOU for taking the time to buy and listen to this music. I hope it brings you great Joy (pun intended). Cheers!
