

Someday You Might Change Your Mind

Something telling me, something in your eyes you won't explain
You've had the conversation, a decision you've already made
We've had some problems, I just ain't ready to leave you be Just give me a chance to prove that I'm still what you need

Someday, you might change your mind
I hope you do before I lose mine
You're leaving's got me thinking about the love you're gonna leave behind
I hope someday, you might change your mind

I walk in the room, you look like you're disappointed to see me there
When I try to talk to you baby, you don't seem to care
What's been going on why you want to go a break my heart
Will we both face the truth or will we let it drive us apart

CHORUS

No I can't point a finger, haven't been the girl of your dreams
Think I'm done with you baby but we have a promise to keep
That means I'll never set you free

No matter the stories can't let this thing fall apart
We'll write a new chapter happy ending with no broken hearts
We're just two people in love
