

Cry No More
Schnebelen/Braunagel

You tell me you love me, you need me just the same
But your heart's not ready to feel this way

You've been on my mind, got me in love watching for your every move
When's the right time to tell her it's through

I've been hanging, on the sidelines
Hoping for your beckoning call

I don't wanna cry no more, seems like I've been here before Hoping that you, will ease my worried mind
You ain't skating by no more, I'm ready to walk out the door
Baby it's you that won't decide it's our time

I've spent far too many tears
Still wiping all those years from my eyes
I'm running and i'm not looking back

I'm finding it crazy to think with my heart
Still don't know why you're keeping us apart
With this time that's moving on
