

Poison The Well

Somebody did you wrong
The only way you move on
Is to the beat of a war cry song
Take a minute babe
You want to give them a taste of the pain
And the tears that roll down like rain
You want to take out that link in your chain
But you're in it babe
They're in it babe

You think you're serving up somebody else's hell
But it finds a way back to your cup
When you poison the well

An eye for an eye for an eye
Time can testify
Belongs in the sweet sweet by and by
You've got this dream you can put it in the ground
You can get it off your shoulders
And lay your burden down
But you're gonna wake up to it coming back around
It's coming babe

CHORUS

And the second it's past your lips
You'll know what you've done
When you fell the bitter on back of your tongue
You may have been right when the whole thing begun
But now all you are is the thirstier one
