Our skies are empty, no clouds, just lies
Sometimes we both forget to breathe
It hurts to know you walk out the door at midnight
As the lights weep upon the streets

Where do you go?
What are we doing?
What's on your agenda?
Who ya been screwin'?
The wolf is hungry
The innocent bleed
As the lights weep

A game of sex roulette
That's all you're gonna get
Delicately fateful
A hard life to forget, oh baby
Drugz and sharp angles
Thugs and blurred spangles
A bad night to forget

Booze, pillz and cigarettes
A bar fight to regret, oh baby
Strung-out street angles
Drugz and sharp angles
A bad night to forget
Thugs and blurred spangles
A bad night to forget

Sometimes the bells forget to ring

Slave to your passions
We're all slaves to our passions
