Stay where you are
Playing with fatalities
Come past the stars
As darkness crumbles bones of clay
Stop all this crying
Pass the liquid to a cold one
Fate's left you here
To beg, to wait, to try and save everyone from drowning
Hand In Hand
Hand In Hand

Stay by the fire
Satan is a razorblade
We trade back and forth
Leftover puzzles we lost in the war
It's still all the same
In the darkness, should I leave you
Here all alone
To beg, to wait, to try and save everyone from drowning
Hand In Hand
Hand In Hand
