*Here, at the sign of the peacock, we find the Club C'est Sable
It is a club dedicated to sadism*

I sit here all alone with a Martini Built for 2
I sit here all alone ' cause I've got nothing better to do
I sit here all alone with a Martini Built for 2
I sit here all alone, well I showed up but where are you?

The world we live in departs
Beneath rust covered clouds we weep
You're afraid of the dreams in the darkest part of your soul
Exchanging time for time

The world we live in departs
You left me to stalk the night
Tell me, are you mine?
Can I say I am yours?
It's a cold, fading scene
