

Out Of Sight

Written By Joshua Lepp

V1

Sin looks like a mirror in front of me

I can't find all the things you see in me

Freed once of a million miles of pain but for now

I'm brought down by crashing waves

Then it all seems clearer than before as we stand face to face

Chorus

Can it ever compare to this

Can it ever compare to my maker taking all my sins

And a thousand times I've tried

And a thousand times You took my sin

V2

Looking back at the sin that entangled me

I look now and You're waiting there for me

And it all seems clearer than before as we stand face to face

Chorus

Can it ever compare to this

Can it ever compare to my maker taking all my sins

And a thousand times I've tried

And a thousand times You took my sin

Bridge

All my sin is washed away

I'm alive I'm alive You called my name

In Your presence I am found

I'm redeemed I'm redeemed in hope I've found

X2

Chorus
