

What Are You Running From

Written By Joshua Lepp

V1

Feeling lost and forgotten

Broken and empty handed when

All you ever wanted is to feel love again

I am here right beside you I am lifting up your eyes

To gaze on the beauty of the king

Chorus

What, what are you running from

The truth of what you've done the One who gave His Son

The One who rose up from the grave

Look at what He gave you're the one He chose to love

What are you running from

V2

He has promised He will answer when you call on His name

His arms are always open and His grace remains

So lift your arms to Heaven give a shout of praise

The Father has returned He's been waiting for this day

Chorus

What, What are you running from

The truth of what you've done the One who gave His Son

The One who rose up from the grave

Look at what He gave you're the one He chose to love

What are you running from

Bridge

Time's running out so offer up a shout

Of praise and worship we're undeserving to the one that gives

Us everything we need praise and worship to the One who set us free
