

Iggy Taylor

Award winning singer, songwriter and musician Iggy Taylor, started playing music at the age of ten. Teaching himself piano/organ and bass guitar, Taylor played in several East Coast cover bands.

Bursting back onto the Delaware music scene in 1999 as "Bad Betsy" Taylor began writing and performing his own songs. Independently releasing seven CD's, Taylor's music has been featured on local radio such as W.S.T.W's Hometown Heroes, The Sherri Mullen show and The Dave Gaffney show. Media coverage has included both local and national publications. To date, Taylor has numerous songs signed to publishers or licensed for use.

E-Mail:
iggy@badbetsy.com
www.badbetsy.com

Iggy Taylor on compact disc:
Best of Bad Betsy
Bad Betsy Again?
Media
Alter Ego
Schtuff
All Alone
Ataraxis

C.D.'s may be purchased on line at:

[http://www.cdbaby.com/
iggytaylor](http://www.cdbaby.com/iggytaylor)

SINGER SONGWRITER
IGGY
TAYLOR

www.badbetsy.com

"I'll Be Your Bud... was one of the most fun singalong songs I had tonight. Had me singin' the chorus by the end of the song"
Mark Rogers - W.S.T.W.

"I love Iggy's "Schtuff". Today ought to be a single"
Johnny B - W.S.T.W.

"A sonically complex project handled quite well" -
Recording Magazine

Randy Newman with a bad attitude is who I liken Iggy Taylor to. He also has some pretty heavy Beatles overtones here. Iggy offers straight-ahead rock and some nice, melodic ballads. Low-budget rock at its finest. Sean Helton - Impact Magazine

"Very nice indeed"
Mike Appel Record Producer
for Bruce Springsteen

Listen.com: "What exactly would Listen.com; "What exactly would the Beatles have sounded like had they spent all their time in a dark basement with only a four-track and a whole bunch of grievances they wanted to air? Bad Betsy makes it a sonic reality"

James Henderson "Community News "a mix of rock and pop influenced by life around him"

Zachary Champagne, Brandywine Weekender " music ranges from angelic and beautiful to rageful and cunning. Whether you find him strange, intriguing, quirky, maniacal, or all of the above, he is interesting".

Justin Cord Hays, Delaware State Today "Iggy goes by "Bad Betsy" but by any other name he is a good Samaritan".

Brad Blum, C.E.O. Burger King Corporation: "The talent and originality that you and your partner have is impressive"

