NOTICE OF "PRIVATE PERSON" LIABILITY

Dear California Board of Regents of the University of California,

Your organization is presently considering removing the personal and religious beliefs exemptions from governing admissions policy in order for students to attend college without being vaccinated. This is contrary to all students' Natural, Common Law, and Constitutional rights to determine whether they want to be vaccinated or not for either or both personal and religious beliefs. BE ADVISED that your are not authorized to do so under the United States and California Constitutions, as this Board has no authority to determine if a federal or state constitutional mandate should or should not be included or enforced in your governing policies and procedures.

Further, it is a violation of your oath of office to remove such exemptions, and this places you in a position to be sued as a "Private Person" for violation of the above, as well as a violation of Civil Rights, a violation of a person's right to education, and it is further an international crime under the Nuremberg Code to force people to be vaccinated against their will. To wit,

The US Constitution's First Amendment states:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

The US Constitution Fourteenth Amendment states:

"No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

The California Constitution, Article 1, section 4 states:

“Free exercise and enjoyment of religion without discrimination or preference are guaranteed.”

The California Constitution, Article 1, section 1 states:

“ALL PEOPLE ARE BY NATURE FREE AND INDEPENDENT AND HAVE INALIENABLE RIGHTS. AMONG THESE ARE ENJOYING AND DEFENDING LIFE AND LIBERTY, ACQUIRING, POSSESSING, AND PROTECTING PROPERTY, AND PURSuing AND OBTAINING SAFETY, HAPPINESS, AND PRIVACY.”

The California Constitution, Article 9, section 1 states:

“A general diffusion of knowledge and intelligence being essential to the preservation of the rights and liberties of the people, the Legislature shall encourage by all suitable means the promotion of intellectual, scientific, moral, and agricultural improvement.”

The California Constitution, Article 9, section 5 states:

“The Legislature shall provide for a system of common schools by which a free school shall be kept up and supported in each district at least six months in every year, after the first year in which a school has been established.”

California Constitution, Article 1, section 7 states:

“A person may not be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law or denied equal protection of the laws.”

California Constitution, Article 20, section 3 states:

“Members of the Legislature, and all public officers and employees, executive, legislative, and judicial, except such inferior officers and employees as may be by law exempted, shall, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

“I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter.”

Finally, the Nuremberg Code and Universal Declaration on Bioethics and Human Rights UNESCO prohibit forced medication, including vaccination. Article 6, section 1 states:

“Any preventive, diagnostic and therapeutic medical intervention is only to be carried out with the prior, free and informed consent of the person concerned, based on adequate information. The consent should, where appropriate, be express and may be withdrawn by the person concerned at any time and for any reason without disadvantage or prejudice.”

There is ample evidence that conclusively proves that vaccines are unsafe and all students and natural born human beings have a right to (1) exercise their personal beliefs in determining if the risk of being vaccinated is worth risking all the potential side effects, including death, that the vaccines package inserts from the manufacturers themselves note are possible; and students also have a right to (2) exercise their religious belief in determining if being vaccinated violates their covenant with God.

You are hereby warned that you are not authorized by law or your oath of office to remove the personal and religious beliefs exemptions from admission policy in order for a student to attend college without being fully or partially vaccinated, based on any Centers for Disease Control vaccine schedule, or any other, and that proceeding is such a way will make you liable for lawsuits and criminal action as noted above, which I and all people against forced mandatory vaccines will not hesitate to bring against you.

Respectfully,

Ricardo Beas
