

All Kinds of Singing

(By Sean McCollough)

There's all kinds of singing
Oh don't you know
There's loud and there's soft
There's high and there's low
Some people sing with a rasp in their voice
Some voices are clear as a bell
But you know that it really don't matter to me
I think all kinds of singing are swell

Sing sing aling (Sing sing aling)
Sing sing along (Sing sing along)
