

HEY DAY

© Anouschka Pearlman

Feeling a little tattered, feeling a little torn
Feelings a little weary yeah, feeling a little worn
Hey, I need a vacation
Been running like a madman running against time
Trying to do too much;
Feel like some forgotten line on a scrap of paper
I got a major may day
Waiting for my hey day
Where I can show a nice and slow
Easy flow's the way to go.
Napenda kuwecka, nazi yangu huru,
I'm keeping my spirit free;
I'm keeping it all true.
There's gotta be a hey day coming my way soon.
Been looking for a little love
But usijali, don't you worry,
Not too soon too much,
'Cause I need a vacation.
And it always goes wrong,
I end up writing some stupid song
About la-la-la-love and where it's all gone....
Hey, I need a vacation.
I got a major may day waiting for my hey day
Where I can show a nice and slow
Easy flow's the way to go.
Napenda kuwecka,
Nazi yangu huru,
I'm keeping my spirit free;
I'm keeping it all true.
There's gotta be a hey day coming my way soon.
