

JEFF PEVAR

GUITARIST | COMPOSER | PERFORMER | PRODUCER | MULTI—INSTRUMENTALIST

Jeff Pevar is a guitarist, composer, producer, performer and multi-instrumentalist who has brought his unique style on stage and/or in the studio to such world renowned artists as Crosby, Stills & Nash, Ray Charles, James Taylor, Jimmy Webb, Carly Simon, Kenny Loggins, Joe Cocker, Jefferson Starship, Phil Lesh and Friends, Marc Cohn, Jennifer Warnes, Laura Nyro, David Foster, Rickie Lee Jones, Jazz Is Dead, CPR (w/ David Crosby & James Raymond) and many others. Jeff is a sought after session musician who recently completed his first independent movie score, playing all the instruments for an independent movie called Walk-In, and is currently scoring music for a world class photographer/environmentalist/activist named John B Weller on his movie on the Ross Sea, "The Last Ocean". Jeff is constantly involved with many such projects for film and recording.

Jeff's Most Notable Productions...

- [1983] National Tour with Rickie Lee Jones, Michael Ruff, Reggie McBride, Tony Braunagle.
- [1984-1986] Record and International Tour with Ray Charles in the Ray Charles Orchestra and the Ray Charles Quartet.
- [1985] Record with James Taylor on his "That's Why I'm Here" record.
- [1988] International Tour with Joe Cocker promoting his "Unchain My Heart" record.
- [1991-1992] International Tour with Marc Cohn, opening for Crosby, Stills and Nash.
- [2000] Tour with the Grateful Dead, Phil Lesh and Friends, Jimmy Herring, Warren Haynes, Branford Marsalis and Derek Trucks.
- [2004-2006] Record and International Tour with Crosby, Nash, Dean Parks, Russ Kunkel, Larry Klein and James Raymond.
- [2009] 40th anniversary of Woodstock with Jefferson Starship, Ten Years After, Big Brother & The Holding Co., Country Joe McDonald, and Canned Heat.
- [2011] Reunion Tour with Rickie Lee Jones.

