Tips and Tricks

NEW FEATURE I'M TRYING. Please submit your own tips and tricks for fellow cavalier lovers. Any grooming, training, showing, traveling, food and treat tips that you can share!!!!

Our first tips come from Terri Easterbrooks, thank you Terri!

"I have 2 tips. One is a teasing comb with boars hair brush and plastic. You can take dog who looks scraggly to show condition in 5 minutes. They cost 5.99, Brushes from Sally Beauty Supply, I give them in my puppy kits.

One last thing is Mrs Stewards Blueing. It is required and added to our Dawn Shampoo if your dogs are on clay. Brightens all colors, but especially WHITE. Wear gloves, it is potent. You can get it online or Piggly Wiggly for about 3.00. We give a 2oz bottle in our puppy kits.

Alice worried we would not have a Therapy Dog Tester, but she found a friend who can do the testing for the picnic. Parking was an issue last year. We are looking for volunteers for a parking attendant. Linda will also need help with set up and tear down.

Linda suggested that Shannon do a small Rally demonstration so that everyone can participate regardless of membership or dog quality. Shannon agreed.
