

YOU ARE INVITED TO A FALL CELEBRATION & COMMUNITY GATHERING

Saturday • October 23, 2021 • 2-3pm

(Rain Date: Sunday, October 24)

Closing Event for 'Reflecting on our Pandemic Experience'

Menotomy Rocks Park, Arlington, MA

Please join us for poetry, music, and conversation in an inspiring setting: an evocative art installation – woven into a pine forest – that invites you to reflect on Arlington's experiences of the pandemic.

PUBLIC ART experience a powerful installation before it closes in mid-November, and meet artist Nilou Moochhala.

POETRY by Francesco Fiondella from his collection of pandemic writing "#SpontaneousCoronaverse".

MUSIC Listen to clarinetist Todd Brunel and french hornists Hazel Dean Davis and Nick Auer respond to the installation.

REFLECTIONS by Dr. Robin Schoenthaler, Arlington's "COVID Dr." and Emily Shea, co-owner of Kickstand Cafe, on sharing their stories through this project.

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!
