

Angels Above You

M. Lambert, L. Lambert

*Standing Silent on the edge of doubt
Facing down my fears
Lost my faith and I know my hope
Is falling like my tears*

*I was captured by your passion
I was blinded by your light
Now I'm walking in the shadows
Black as hell and dark as night*

*I hear the voices from inside my head
That whisper just believe
But the war is raging all around me now
Lost without reprieve*

*I was torn by your deception
I was taken by your eyes
Now I'm searching for an Angel
To restore the faith that died.*

*Bring me some faith and love
Angels from up above*

*Show me some truth and light
See me through the night*
