

CATERPILLAR JAZZ

Dm7

the other day I was feeling low and uptight looking for some quiet underneath a stormy sky

C

Dm7

looking to slow down time that zips by in the blink of an eyelash

A

G

when life is a little loud I put my ear to the garden ground

F

Em

I listen and I'm still and when I do I hear

Dm7

caterpillar jazz

Dm7

one plays the xylophone one plays the flute one plays the bass one plays the drums man they are cute

C

Dm7

the sounds they lay down are in the now then float into the past

A

G

when I want to disconnect and float for a little while

F

Em

I take a breath and let it out and dig the sound of

Dm7

caterpillar jazz

Dm7

they jam all night in the moonlight shade
now you know where to go at the end of the day

C

Dm7

just tip toe in find a seat and dig it while it lasts

A

G

stay until right about half past two

F

Em

you'll find those microscopic grooves and you'll get down to some

Dm7

caterpillar jazz