

WHAT IF?

what if? wa wa wa wa wa what if? everybody wonders what if
E D A D D# E
wa wa wa wa wa what if?

A D
what if a lion comes to our door?
E
we'll feed it candy 'till it can't eat any more

A D
what if little monkeys invade our house?

we'll dress 'em in tuxedos and play Mozart and Strauss

A D
what if muddy piglets come into my room?

we'll wash the mud off and spray them with perfume

A D
what if a polar bear follows me home?

E
we'll fill the house with ice and then we'll leave it alone

what if? wa wa wa wa wa what if? everybody wonders what if
E D A D D# E
wa wa wa wa wa what if?

A D
what if some crows try to come inside?
E
we'll move all the furniture so they can fly

A D
what if the basement is full of worms?

we'll truck in dirt and wait to take our turn

A D
what if a bear walks through our gate?

E
we'll hide 'till winter and it hibernates
A D
what if a snake crawls under my bed?

E
we'll make a tiny pillow for his tiny head I know that

D7
every day in every way the world is the kind of place

A7
where everything and anything goes

D7
the snake you saw might be long and sure it's here inside this song

E7
but it also might be garden hose

D7
if you have fears don't shed a tear I know it's odd and I know it's weird

A7
when the planet seems random and strange

B7
if it's moving too fast you can always ask

E7 F E7
and I will take the time to explain

what if? everybody wonders
