Itinerary

Depart USA Friday June 24

Expected flight details CLT – DUB AA 724 departs at 6:20 pm on June 24 and arrives in Dublin on June 25 at 7:00 am.

Saturday, June 25 – Upon arrival at Dublin Airport we will meet our Irish driver/guide OWEN MOHAN and begin our journey which will be filled with Irish culture, history, music and of course the hospitality the Irish are known for. We arrive in Armagh around 10:00 and your room will be waiting for you to take a nap or freshen up. Those who prefer may join a walking tour of the city led by a local guide. Fans of Irish Folk music will be familiar with one of Armagh's more famous sons, Tommy Makem. Departing the hotel around 2:00 pm, we'll stop into the arts center named for the singer and learn a bit more about the man and his music and have a pint in a local pub. We'll visit the nearby Navan Fort – a wonderful example of Neolithic architecture and tools that trace the presence of mankind in Ireland over 5,000 years.

Overnight: Armagh City Hotel (B,D)

Sunday, June 26 – After a relaxing "Full Irish" breakfast, we'll make our way across the province of Ulster to city of Enniskillen and the beautiful Fermanagh Lakelands region of Ireland. Along the way, you'll get a glimpse into the traditional craft of weaving as we visit a weaver and see how they create the beautiful sweaters and blankets so popular around the world. This is our driver's home turf, so be prepared for an unscheduled stop or two and a chance to get to meet the Irish people. Dinner together this evening in our hotel.

Overnight: Kees Hotel, Ballybofey (B,D)

Monday, June 27 – Today we visit the city of Derry/Londonderry. We'll walk the city walls as we learn the very important and colorful history of the city. Next, we will stop in at the Ulster American Folk Park for a glimpse into the story of Irish emigration at the museum that brings it to life. Follow the emigrant trail as we journey from the thatched cottages of Ulster aboard an emigrant ship leading to the log cabins of the American Frontier. Meet an array of costumed characters on our way with traditional crafts to show, tales to tell and food to share.

Overnight: Kees Hotel, Ballybofey (B)

Tuesday, June 28 – We travel south along the Wild Atlantic Way for the next leg of our journey. Ireland has produced 4 Nobel Prize winners for literature, and we'll stop to pay our respects to one of the most popular today, W.B. Yeats, as we stop by the church yard where he is buried. Further along we'll cross into County Mayo and, weather permitting, we'll venture out to Achill Island and the edge of Clew Bay – said to have so many islands that there is one for each day of the year. Enjoy the rich cultural history of this land and the rugged and rocky landscape. We arrive in the wonderful city of Galway for our stay at Jurys Inn, famous for their Irish hospitality and perfectly located in the city center.

Overnight: Jury's Inn, Galway (B,D)

Wednesday, June 29 – Today we'll explore the magnificent Connemara Peninsula with breathtaking scenery. We stop in at the Connemara Cultural Center for a glimpse of life in the far west of Ireland over the ages, you'll see how soda bread is made over an open fire, have a go at cutting turf, and hear a story or two about the history on this very spot of land. We return to Galway where you are free to discover the many shops, pubs, and other places that make up this busy place. Traditional Irish music can be found in many pubs, and there is food for every taste so enjoy the long summer evening discovering this great city. Dinner will be on your own tonight. Everything from Michelin Star restaurants to amazing "pub grub" can be found close by our hotel.

Overnight: Jury's Inn, Galway (B)

Thursday, June 30 – We're heading east today to the riverside town Athlone for lunch in Ireland's heartland. Located on the River Shannon, you'll enjoy strolling along the bank or browsing the shops before we continue our drive to Dublin. Perhaps nothing is more iconic to Ireland than a pint of Guinness and we're heading for the birthplace of "the black stuff" as we visit the Guinness Storehouse. Discover the brewing process, clever advertisements, and commercial innovations that make Guinness one of the world's most recognizable brands. This evening you are free to explore the city from the non-stop action of the Temple Bar district to the world class dining throughout the city.

Overnight: Camden Court Hotel Dublin City Center (B)

Friday, July 1 – After breakfast, enjoy a sightseeing tour around Dublin City and the elegant Georgian squares and houses, colorful parks, and bustling shopping areas. Ample time to explore your interests on your own. Tonight, one last dinner and music session together in Ireland.

Overnight: Camden Court Hotel Dublin City Center (B)

Saturday, July 2 – Early breakfast this morning so we can arrive at the airport with ample time for check-in, security, and entry requirements.

DUB – CLT AA 725 departs at 9:50 am on July 2 and arrives in Charlotte on July 2 at 1:05 pm
