Frank DiBussolo's interview
By Steve Walker

SW: You presently play solo shows, duos, and with full bands. What do you enjoy about the various configurations?

FD: I enjoy the "differentness" of them all. I enjoy the intimacy and communication in a duo guitar setting. I enjoy playing with a good bass player and drummer. Robert Campbell and Bruce Kaminsky are two of my favorite bass players. Fred Biondi and Sean Kennedy are two of the finest drummers you'll ever hear.
