

CHARLEY YOUNG

SYNTHPOP SINGER/SONGWRITER

Charley Young is a synthpop artist born in San Diego, California and raised on the Gulf Coast of Florida.

RECENT CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Charley's music video for "Your Fire" won the Bronze Award for both Best Editing and Best Music, and received an Honorable Mention for Best Music Video in the 2020 4th Quarter Edition of the Queen Palm International Film Festival. Her music video for "Hold the Moon" was also a QPIFF Official Selection for the 2020 4th Quarter Edition.
- Her music video for "Hold the Moon" was nominated for the 2020 LA Music Video Awards for both Best EDM Video and Best Music Video.
- Charley's "Hold the Moon" music video was also an Official Selection and Best Music Video nominee at the 2020 Portland Film Festival sponsored by Comcast NBCUniversal.
- Her song "Hold The Moon (Retro Mix)" was selected as a semi-finalist for Unsigned Only's 2020 music competition featuring Aimee Mann, Charli XCX, and Robert Smith of The Cure as judges.
- Charley performed at the 2019 TCS New York City Marathon
- Charley is an ambassador for Women Who Rock, a non-profit organization that champions women in music and women's health research.
- Her song "Your Fire" was featured on the VideoStar App and was supported by bestselling author James Patterson and Women Crush Music
- Her music video for "Hold The Moon" (Retro Mix) was featured on MTV, VH1 and mtvU.
- Charley recently performed at MusicPro Cafe sponsored by Pandora AMP, iZOTOPE, PreSonus, MusicPro Insurance, Sterling Select Entertainment Insurance, and IK Multimedia.

PRESS

SHOCK YA!

VENTS MAGAZINE

The Ark of Music

#WOMXNCRUSHMUSIC

IndiePulse Music

f 3K

Instagram 6.3K

Twitter 2.7K

10.6K
OVER 223K VIEWS ON
MOST POPULAR TIK TOK

59K VIEWS