Once upon a time, I looked at rainbows
The sun would shine after the rain
Eyes full of wonder, head full of ideas out for adventure, moving along

When I fall down, I know
I pick myself up and I grow
I won't give up on myself
Can't put my dreams upon a shelf
Cause I believe

Every time, exhilaration and motivation, drive me ahead

When I fall down, I know
I pick myself up and I grow
I won't give up on myself
Can't put my dreams upon a shelf
Because deep within ourselves
Is the true measure of our wealth
It's what I believe
I still believe
