THE Blues - Chicago Style
THE Chicago Blues Experience Opening 2017
By Jack Hadley

It’s hard to believe that the city of Chicago does not have a national Blues Museum. That will change next year. The Chicago Blues Experience is scheduled to open in 2017 on Navy Pier. Colorado has deep connections to Chicago blues. Trance-blues pioneer Otis Taylor is from the Windy City. His original guitarist, “Devil Boy” Eddie Turner, also hails from Chicago. A frequent Colorado visitor named Delores Scott - a gifted jazz, gospel and blues artist - can tell you all about Chicago style. You’ve probably heard Chicago transplant Bob Tiger holding down the low end on many stages in Colorado.

As we start the 21st year of the Colorado Blues Society, we are proud to introduce you to your 2016 CBS Board of Directors:

TARRY UNDERWOOD - PRESIDENT

Tarry has always been a music lover. At 15 he became a disc jockey at his hometown radio station when they started playing rock'n roll. In the early 80's he heard Stevie Ray Vaughn and started his research of the blues. In 1993, Tarry discovered photography and combined his two loves: taking pictures of blues artists. In 1995 Tarry became a charter member of the Colorado Blues Society and finally had an avenue to feature his photography in The Holler.

In 2014 Tarry took over as CBS President after serving as a board director for several years and Vice President for three years. Tarry feels the best part of being a part of CBS is the camaraderie and the family of blues society members where he has made many great friendships.

CHICK CAVALLERO - VICE-PRESIDENT

New Jersey native Chick moved to Colorado in 1976. He spent more than 20 years with Hewlett Packard as a Project Coordinator and is now retired. He and his family live in Loveland. Chick has been a blues fan since the sixties when he discovered the ‘rock’ songs he liked the most were really re-worked blues songs. Chick and his lovely wife, Patti, have seen over 2000 live blues performances.

Chick served 4 years as CBS president and chaired the local IBC committee. He is a Blues Foundation volunteer and has been a judge at the IBC Memphis competition the last 4 years. He serves as the CBS Games Manager and oversees CBS raffles. Chick writes and edits the weekly CBS Update. He initiated CBS’s entry into the Best Self-Produced CD competition at the IBC and directed CBS’ process for nominating local artists, programs and institutions for the Blues Foundation’s Keeping the Blues Alive awards (KBA). Chick is a member of the Grand County Blues Society and the Blues Foundation. He works with Blue Star Connection, collecting instruments. Excerpts of his writing have found their way into the Grand County Blues Newsletter, American Blues Scene Magazine, The Holler, many blues performers’ websites and the Blues Foundation website.

MIKE GOLDEN - VICE-PRESIDENT

Mike is an IT project manager and consultant and past president of the Colorado Blues Society. He has been an active CBS volunteer for over ten years, including as a committee member and director of the Blues In The Schools (BITS) program. Mike has also volunteered for and raised funds for the Blue Star Connection, 5P Foundation, Food Bank of the Rockies and the Epilepsy Foundation. He is married and the father of bassist at the Denver School of the Arts.

JENNIFER UNDERWOOD - SECRETARY

Jennifer grew up in Southern California in the 70’s with five older brothers who greatly influenced her taste in music. Through them she became a big fan of Southern Rock, attending many shows around the L.A. area. It was during that time she was exposed to and fell in love with Janis Joplin, Bob Dylan and others.

Professionally, Jennifer works in medical research. Currently employed at National Jewish Health, she coordinates clinical trials in the treatment of COPD. Past work includes clinical trials for hepatitis C, glaucoma, and prostate cancer.

Jennifer previously served on the board for the Green Mountain Marching Band Boosters, as well as coordinated and cooked all of the meals for three years. Jennifer became involved with the Colorado Blues Society in 2009 when she married her husband, Tarry Underwood. She is finishing up her first year serving as board secretary.

KYLE DEIBLER - TREASURER

Board member Kyle Deibler comes to the CBS Board having served as the President of the Phoenix Blues Society for 8 years and board member for 10 years. A key volunteer at the national level for the Blues Foundation, Kyle has worked as a Venue Coordinator for the International Blues Challenge in Memphis for 12 years and continues to be in

PATTI CAVALLERO - DIRECTOR

Patti grew up in South Dakota, graduated from nursing school and now works at the Medical Center of the Rockies. Music has been a large part of her life, starting with high school, where she marched in Jimmy Carter’s Inaugural parade as a member of the Platte (SD) High School Marching Band. Patti has a lifelong commitment to live music.

Patti sits on several committees at the Medical Center of the Rockies and has been involved in a number of fundraising events along the Front Range. Since 2010, Patti has been a member of our International Blues Challenge committee, where she serves as a scorekeeper and timekeeper during our talent competitions.

Patti has been a volunteer for the Blues Foundation at the Memphis IBCs for the past 3 years. She has been part of the organizing committee of the Foundation’s Health Fare and has been a huge part of its success, helping set it up, promote it, and working from start to finish during the entire Health Fare and its workshops.

JOANNE COLE - DIRECTOR

Joanne Cole is serving her second year on the CBS Board of Directors. Her background is in Development and she worked as Development Director for KGUN Community Radio for 18 years. Joanne finally got the nerve up to host a show and is now in the rotation for the Blues Legacy show that airs every Friday at 6pm. Joanne hopes you will tune in www.kgun.org and listen to the show.

Joanne has always enjoyed blues, jazz and R&B and has been lucky to travel and take in all music forms. She is fascinated by New Orleans and considers herself lucky to spend time there. The music, people, culture and food is unique to our country and she never tires of learning more. Joanne prefers blues off the beaten path...something with jump, jive & jazz. Her music fantasy is to create a piano festival in Colorado that would feature blues and all it’s little babies...jazz, gospel, ragtime & R&B.

Her passions include fishing, wildflower hiking and dogs. Joanne is grateful to be able to support the Colorado Blues Society and urges others to take the next step by getting more involved.

JOE MENKE, DIRECTOR

Previously a classic rock fan, Joe got hooked on the blues several years ago. For several years, Joe hosted annual blues concerts in his backyard featuring local solo/duo artists and bands. A highlight was the Blues Benefit Concert in 2012 which raised $5700 for the Rist Canyon Volunteer Fire Department. Joe attended Board of Directors meetings for the last couple of years as a member learning the mission, programs, and operational aspects of the Society before joining the Board of Directors. Since 2012, Joe has judged several rounds of the local CBS IBC competitions that select CBS’ representatives to the International Blues Challenge in Memphis.

Joe is currently an electrical engineer for Keysight Technologies. Arriving in Colorado in 1981 via California with a BSEE and MSM from Purdue University, Joe is a native Hoosier.

KERRY MORRISON - DIRECTOR

Kerry was born and raised in North Platte, NE. She moved to Colorado in 1976 with her two daughters. The daughters are all grown up now and she has been blessed with three grandchildren.

Kerry has been a blues fan for as long as she can remember and looks forward to working with the CBS Blues in the School program. She has always felt that her mission here was to introduce people to good music and feels that being a director for the Colorado Blues Society will help her in that regard. Kerry is starting her first term on the Board.

DARYL REICHENENDER - DIRECTOR

Daryl is pleased to join the Colorado Blues Society Board of Directors. His career background has been in banking and corporate finance at both mature companies and at start-up companies from inception through maturity. Daryl has lived in Colorado almost his entire life and likes to bike, camp and ski. And, of course, listening to the Blues! Daryl loves it here and is looking forward to contributing and helping CBS and introducing the Blues to others. Daryl would like to thank CBS members for their support. Daryl is starting his first term on the Board.

FORDHAM MURDY aka “Reverend Freak Child” - DIRECTOR

In the tradition of such Blues Reverends as Rev. Gary Davis and Rev. Robert Wilkins - such is the irreverent Reverend Freakchild. Like John Hammond Jr. he is a student of the Blues. He played in an early incarnation of Soul Coughing with M. Doughty, leaving to form the roots-rock jam band Bananafish in Boston. He went on to play with The Neptune Ensemble, The Soul Miners (w/ guitar virtuoso Matt Rae), The Lucky Devils and The Cosmic All-Stars touring internationally.

The Rev. spent 3 years off-off-off Broadway singing blues and spirituals on Sundays at Tobacco Road, the now defunct NYC hippie hangout replete with drug addicts, hookers and music freaks. He served as a member and featured soloist of the Metro Mass Gospel Choir performing at such venues as Carnegie Hall, Avery Fisher Hall and the Town Hall Theater. The Rev’s music has been featured in TV programs, commercials and national radio advertising campaigns. He grew up in Hawaii, holds a degree in philosophy and religion from Northeastern University and is now pursuing a Master of Divinity Degree at Naropa University in Boulder, Colorado. He continues to perform and preach saying, “Music is my religion. Through song I seek transcendence!” The Reverend is starting his first term on the Board.

PEGGY JAMISON - DIRECTOR

Peggy’s introduction to CBS was in 2010 at the Pearl Street Blues Festival. “I attended with my 5 year old granddaughter Jordan. At the time she was carrying around a harmonica and playing it constantly. The headliner for this festival was Grady Champion, winner of the 2010 IBC. In the midst of Grady’s performance, he stopped playing his harmonica and invited little Jordan up to the stage to play with him. It was a memorable moment I will never forget. After her performance, a gentleman by the name of Jim Primock handed me a business card and said if I emailed him he would send me the pictures he took of her. In addition, Patti Cavallero took a video of the performance and put it on YouTube and also sent me a disk with the video on it. Well…that was the beginning of my friendship and connection with people in the Colorado Blues Society.”

She wasn’t raised on Blues, but it was mixed in with everything that she did listen to growing up in Minneapolis. Peggy believes Blues is the bedrock of most all music we listen to. “I am not one who can recite historical facts about Blues artists………I’m still learning! But I know what I love and I love the Blues. It’s a privilege to assist CBS with sharing this genre with others, in whatever areas that I can.” You may have seen Peggy or heard of her granddaughter, Jordan “Stixx” Jamison. Being able to share her love for music and in particular, Blues Music, has been wonderful and the Colorado Blues Society and Blues community has been supportive to her from day one.

Peggy wants to be a part of this organization to help continue what CBS has already been doing and help to make it even better.

Jude Talaba - Director

Jude is Nursing Administrator currently working as a Wellness Consultant coordinating & managing bio-metric screenings for community & corporate events across the country. She grew up around music. Performers were always about as her mother was the Symphony manager in Ohio, and she accompanied the Youth Orchestra. Jude has always been a huge rock’n roll fan, but after volunteering at several Blues events at the Business of Arts Center in Manitou Springs a few years ago - and later attending Sunday Night jams at the old Outlook Hotel in Boulder - she became hooked on the blues.

Jude has had the opportunity to promote, market, merchandise, and present at various medical workshops, health & metaphysical fairs, and UFO conferences around the country, and she is eager, honored & grateful to be able share her expertise by becoming an integral part of the team promoting all the great blues activity in our community. Music feeds the soul. We have so many talented musicians in Colorado and Jude wants to be part of spreading the joy of great music, an act that will always be exciting to her. Does Jude have the Blues? Yes, yes…. She does! How ‘bout you?

Sandee Lewin Nye - Director

As a judge at the 2016 International Blues Challenge in Memphis, I was slotted at a venue for Wednesday night’s quarter-finals. When Tripwire hit the stage I breathed a sigh of relief and thought to myself “Finally, some real Blues music with a kick”.

They stamped an impression on me which I will not soon forget. They took the stage ready to play for the short twenty-five minutes they were allowed. As for me, I could have sat there and listened to them all night. Now that is saying a Blues something!

Having been given a promo CD by the group later in the week on Beale Street, I brought it home with the many others I had received. I decided to drop it in my player - a choice I will never regret.

What I heard was a rich blend of all genres of Blues. They take you from toe-tapping to hip and booty shaking and finger snapping with great lyrics to which you can laugh or say to yourself “Been there - done that”. The promo is a compilation of songs from past CD releases and I could only have been happier to see them live at a concert. All the lyrics are contagious!

Tripwire is made up of “Jody Guy” Cottengim on drums, “Nathan Bryce” Melton on lead guitar, and “Stoney Lee” Cottengim on bass. Stoney Lee also brings along his “Mississippi Sax” (a.k.a. harmonica). How great is that!

This group has been together since 1999. That is quite a while for any Blues band and they have paid their dues. All lyrics and music are original with the exception of track one “Treat A Dog” by Bobby Blue Bland, and all of the blended vocals are outstanding.

Jody credits the influences of Stevie Ray Vaughn, Albert King, and, of course B.B. King. His family has a deep history in all styles of music and turned him into a professional at age thirteen. They credit the influences of Tony Joe White, J.J. Cale, and Ry Cooder.

Having spent many years on the music road, they settled in Springfield, Mo. His father, Jimmy Guy Cottengim, was a lyricist and the song he is very proud of is “Number One Lovin’ Man” recorded by Jerry Lee Lewis.

Tripwire has many CDs available, and I encourage you to travel to their website, www.tripwireband.com. You will see what I am talking about. Personally, I can’t wait to hear their fifth CD scheduled for release in 2016 titled Boom Box Quality. I want first dibs on that CD review!

It is time to bring this band out of Springfield and send them national. You can help by grabbing as many CDs as possible. Tripwire also donates their talent and time to many charitable organizations. This makes them my kind of musicians, and I am happy to give my time in promoting them.
