

OASIS

BAND: GRP ALL STARS
DRUMS: CARLOS VEGA

The musical score is written for a drum set in 4/4 time. It consists of ten staves of notation. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and cymbal hits. Some notes are marked with an 'x' to indicate a cymbal hit. The score begins with a double bar line and a 4/4 time signature. The first staff contains a few notes and rests, followed by a double bar line and a repeat sign. The second staff continues the rhythmic pattern. The third staff features a more complex pattern with many eighth notes and cymbal hits. The fourth staff has a similar pattern with some notes marked with an 'x'. The fifth staff continues the pattern with some notes marked with an 'x'. The sixth staff has a similar pattern with some notes marked with an 'x'. The seventh staff continues the pattern with some notes marked with an 'x'. The eighth staff has a similar pattern with some notes marked with an 'x'. The ninth staff has a similar pattern with some notes marked with an 'x'. The tenth staff has a similar pattern with some notes marked with an 'x'. The score ends with a double bar line.

OASIS

The image displays a 10-staff musical score for a drum set. Each staff begins with a double bar line and a common time signature. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns such as eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped with beams. Accents are placed above many notes. Specific drum notations are used: 'x' marks on notes, and circled 'x' marks on notes. The score is organized into measures across the ten staves, showing a progression of complex rhythmic figures.

OASIS

The image displays ten staves of musical notation, likely for a drum set. Each staff begins with a double bar line and a common time signature. The notation consists of rhythmic patterns represented by stems, beams, and note heads. Many notes have an 'x' above them, indicating a specific drum sound. Some notes are circled with an 'x' inside, possibly representing a cymbal or a specific drum. The patterns are complex and repetitive, typical of a drum solo or a specific rhythmic section in a song. The notation is arranged in a standard musical format, with the staves stacked vertically.

OASIS

The image displays a 10-staff musical score for a drum set, likely for the song "Oasis". Each staff begins with a double bar line and a vertical line, indicating the start of a measure. The notation consists of rhythmic patterns on a five-line staff, with notes and rests. The patterns are complex, involving eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. Specific notations include 'x' marks below notes, which typically represent cymbals or hi-hats, and circled 'x' marks, which often represent a snare drum. The score is organized into ten horizontal lines, each representing a staff of music. The patterns vary across the staves, showing different rhythmic motifs and their progression.

OASIS

The image displays a 10-staff musical score for a drum set, likely for a song titled "OASIS". The notation is written on a single-line staff with a double bar line at the beginning of each line. The score consists of ten lines of music, each containing various rhythmic patterns and accents. The notation includes eighth notes, quarter notes, and sixteenth notes, often grouped together. Many notes have an 'x' above them, indicating a specific drum sound (likely a snare or tom). Some notes have an accent (>) above them. There are also some notes with a circled 'x' above them. The score is written in a standard musical notation style, with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a time signature of 4/4. The music is a complex, multi-measure piece, likely a drum solo or a specific drum part. The notation is clear and easy to read, with a focus on rhythm and dynamics.
